

DISRUPTING THE FUTURE

THE NEW BUSINESS REALITY—THREAT OR OPPORTUNITY?

Print is declining, changing, and transforming as we know it—are you prepared to face the new business reality? Join a small, informal group of printing executives for a hard-hitting discussion series that features an interactive virtual presentation by Dr. Joe Webb, author of one of our industry's most controversial books, Disrupting the Future. Jerry Scher, principle of Our Green Value, a division of Peak Focus, will guide attendees through three conversational sessions, concluding with an author Q&A.
